

Human Rights Shabbat

When? 11th December 2009,
6pm – 11pm

Where? Moïshe
House London,
39 Staverton
Road, NW2 5EY

Why? To meet
some new and interesting
people of all
faiths and none,
enjoy some good
vegetarian food,
experience a
Friday-night
dinner if you have not done so before, learn
your new fact of the day...

What is it? Human Rights Shabbat is an innovation of the Human Rights charity René Cassin (www.renecassin.org).
Teaming up with Moïshe House, we are putting on a multi-faith Friday night dinner.
Look forward to a nice relaxed evening but also an opportunity to think about what it means that health is a human right and how this relates to the malaria epidemic in sub-Saharan Africa.

Anything else? The evening is free, but please do bring along your own deliciously delectable veggie dish to share with everyone else so that there is enough to go around!

RSVP: Sign up to our Facebook group, 'Faiths Act Fellows London', or e-mail natasha.steele@faithsactfellows.org.
